An illustration of a library interior. On the left is a tall, ornate wooden bookshelf with four shelves filled with books of various colors. Above it is a shelf with more books. In the center, a young woman with glasses and a ponytail sits in a brown armchair, reading a blue book. A small table next to her holds a lamp with a white shade and a blue fringed base. To the right, a lantern with a lit candle hangs on the wall. The background is a dark brown wall with decorative elements at the top.
